

Sustrans Scotland requests the honour of your company at an artwork unveiling event to celebrate the installation of two new artworks along the traffic-free Loanhead Railway Extension Path in the South of Edinburgh, linking Shawfair, Danderhall, Gilmerton and Loanhead, via a safe active travel route.

Thursday 4th July 2019, 10:30 – 13:00

Artwork unveiling near Shawfair, Midlothian (55.909515, -3.098483) followed by a Walk/Cycle/Wheel via the new Gilmerton Road Ramp to the second artwork unveiling near Gilmerton, Edinburgh (55.895466, -3.132052)

Agenda

10:30 – Invited guests and media gather

11:00 – First Artwork unveiling (Artists: James Gordon & Susheila Jamieson)

11:15 – Walk/cycle/wheel to Gilmerton road Ramp (20 mins walk, 10 min cycle)

11:45 – Continue to second artwork unveiling (10 min walk, 5 min cycle)

12:00 – Second artwork unveiling (Artist: Andrea Geile)

12:15 – Networking and naming of the path

13:00 – Close

Light refreshments will be available

There will be a 3km walk/cycle/wheel which is entirely traffic free and family friendly. All children will be the responsibility of their guardian/parent. A limited number of Bromptons and electric bikes are available on request, please let us know if you would require one when you RSVP.

See maps for location of event and travel links.

RSVP

Please confirm your attendance by replying to

Cosmo.Blake@sustrans.org.uk

by 17:00 Monday 24th June